Ice Rink Clubs and Groups

Fall-Winter-Spring

BROOKLYN FIGURE SKATING CLUB

Open to skaters of all ages and abilities who enjoy the discipline of figure skating. BFSC encourages instruction, practice, and advancement of its members in all branches of skating based on regulations established by the United States Figure Skating Association (USFS). The Club and sponsors, produce and cooperate in the production of amateur ice shows, exhibitions, and competitions. Come join us for our annual Autumn Skills Competition in November. For further information about the club go to www.brooklynfsc.com.

New members are always welcome!!

Brooklyn Youth Hockey

The Brooklyn Youth Hockey Association offers programs from 4 years old to 14 years old with the goal of preparing players for high school hockey.

For those just starting out, we offer a "Try Hockey For Free" day in November. Exact days and time for this event will be available on our website at www.clevelandsharks.com.

Our Learn-to-Play Hockey Program, which is designed for players ages 4-9 that are either new to the sport or have just started to play. This begins in October and costs $60/month. Equipment is necessary, however, most players new to the program can take advantage of USA Hockey starter equipment at a very low price, or equipment that has been donated back to the club.

We offer a balanced program, combining education, training, fostering skills, teamwork, sportsmanship and fitness. Our coaches are all trained and USA hockey certified. We also run background checks on every coach.

Please contact: Mike Crossman for more info: mvc1069@outlook.com or go to our website at www.ClevelandSharks.com. Come join the fun!!
